

ABUNDANT METAL

Though it's the most abundant metal in Earth's crust, aluminium's reactivity makes it costly to extract.

RECYCLABLE

75% of all aluminium ever made is still in use. Recycled cans get back on shelves in as little as 60 days.

AEROPLANES

Aluminium is combined with other metals to make strong but light alloys used in aeroplane construction.